

VIASAT INTERNET SERVICES

Acceptable Use Policy

THIS POLICY STATES IMPORTANT REQUIREMENTS REGARDING YOUR USE OF VIASAT'S SERVICES AS WELL AS YOUR RELATIONSHIP WITH VIASAT. PLEASE READ THIS POLICY CAREFULLY AS IT CONTAINS IMPORTANT INFORMATION REGARDING YOUR RIGHTS AND OURS.

IF YOU DO NOT AGREE TO COMPLY WITH THIS POLICY, YOU MAY NOT USE VIASAT'S SERVICES.

Introduction

It is Viasat's intent to provide our customers with excellent Internet services through satellite technology. In order to accomplish this objective, we have adopted this Acceptable Use Policy (the "Policy"). This Policy outlines the acceptable uses of the WiFi and internet services provided by Viasat (collectively, the "Services"; individually, the "Service").

Viasat may revise this Policy from time to time without notice by posting an updated version of this document on www.Viasat.com, exede.com, exede.net or any successor websites. All revised versions of this Policy are effective immediately upon posting and once you accept them when signing into the service again. In the event of a conflict between Terms of Service Agreement and this Policy, the terms of this Policy shall govern.

Prohibited Uses and Activities

You agree not to use the Service(s), or any Viasat equipment, or allow others to use the Service(s) or equipment, to do any of the following, and acknowledge and agree that by doing so Viasat may immediately terminate your Service:

(i) undertake any unlawful, fraudulent, or criminal purpose; (ii) post, store, send, transmit, or disseminate any information or material which a reasonable person could deem to be offensive, indecent, pornographic, harassing, threatening, invasive of privacy, vulgar, hateful, defamatory, racially or ethnically offensive, or otherwise inappropriate, regardless of whether such information or material or its dissemination is unlawful; (iii) access any other person's computer or computer system, software, or data without his/her consent or attempt to circumvent the user authentication or security of any host, network, or account; (iv) use or distribute tools designed or used for compromising security; (v) unauthorized port scanning; (vi) interfere with the ability of any other person to use or enjoy the Services, or engage in activities designed to degrade, or have the effect of degrading, service to Viasat users or others; (vii) transmit unsolicited bulk or commercial messages or "spam;" (viii) upload, post, publish, transmit, reproduce, create derivative works of, distribute, or engage in any activity that infringes upon, or assists others in infringing upon, the intellectual property rights (including rights granted by any applicable copyright law) of any person or entity, including Viasat; (ix) run programs, equipment, or servers that provide network content or any other services to anyone outside of your local area network (also commonly referred to as public services or servers); (x) participate in the collection of personal information, responses from unsolicited messages or other identifiers of others (without their prior consent); (xi) impersonate any person or entity, engage in sender address falsification, forge anyone else's digital or manual signature, falsify, alter or remove any packet or message header (or any part thereof), including references to Viasat or the Viasat network in the header, list a Viasat IP address in any unsolicited bulk email message, or perform any other similar fraudulent activity; (xii) connect Viasat equipment to any computer or network device outside of your premises; (xiii) violate the rules, regulations, or policies applicable to any network, server, computer database, or website that you access; (xiv) damage the name or reputation of Viasat, its affiliates, or subsidiaries; (xv) use any name or mark of Viasat, its affiliates, or subsidiaries in any manner not expressly authorized in writing by Viasat; (xvi) operate a call-center service, telemarketing-center service, monitor service, intercom service, conference-bridge service, transcription service; (xvii) use service for any commercial, retail or enterprise business use; (xviii) make mechanized voice calls, including, but not limited to, extensive call forwarding, the use of auto-dialers, the use of fax machines for fax blasting or fax broadcasting, or the use of voice programs for voice blasting; (xix) use the service or allow the service to be used for Wi-Fi hot spot or backhaul services, streaming video upload, for machine to machine (M2M) communication, or real time instrumentation streaming, or for paid subscription usage without explicit written authorization from Viasat; (xv) for any medical, health, or safety use, whether onboard an aircraft or otherwise; or (xvi) engage in any action that circumvents or thwarts Viasat's enforcement of its network management practices described in Viasat's Network Management Policy.

Copyright Infringement

Viasat is committed to complying with any applicable copyright and related laws, and requires all customers and users of the Service to comply with these laws. In accordance with applicable laws, it is Viasat's policy to reserve the right to terminate the Service(s) of any user who infringes upon the intellectual property rights of another, including repeat infringers, or who Viasat believes, in its sole discretion, is infringing upon such rights.

Copyright owners may report alleged infringements of their works that are accessed through the Service by sending Viasat's authorized agent a notification of claimed infringement specifying the infringed work and to what extent they are the owner of the work. Upon Viasat's receipt of a satisfactory notice of claimed infringement, Viasat shall notify the user associated with the alleged infringement. If the affected customer or user believes in good faith that the allegedly infringing works have been removed or blocked by mistake or misidentification, then that person may send a counter-notification to Viasat. Upon Viasat's receipt of a counter-notification, Viasat will provide a copy of the counter-notification to the person who sent the original notification of claimed infringement and will follow any procedures required under applicable laws with respect to a counter-notification. In all events, Viasat will not be a party to any dispute or lawsuit regarding alleged copyright infringement.

Copyright owners may send Viasat a notification of claimed infringement to report any alleged infringement of their works to:

General

Although Viasat has no obligation to monitor the Services and/or its network, Viasat and its authorized agents and/or suppliers reserve the right at any time to monitor bandwidth, usage, transmissions, and content from time to time in order to operate the Services, identify violations of this Policy or customer agreement, or protect the network, the Services and Viasat users.

If the Services are used in a way that Viasat, in its sole discretion, believes violate this Policy or a customer agreement, Viasat may take any responsive actions it deems appropriate, including refusing to transmit or post, or removing or blocking, any information or materials, in whole or in part. Neither Viasat nor its affiliates, subsidiaries, suppliers, officers, directors, employees or agents will have any liability for any of these responsive actions. These actions are not Viasat's exclusive remedies and Viasat may take any other legal or technical action it deems appropriate.

The failure of Viasat to enforce this Policy, for whatever reason, shall not be construed as a waiver of any right to do so at any time. You agree that if any portion of this Policy is held invalid or unenforceable, that portion will be construed consistent with applicable law as nearly as possible, and the remaining portions will remain in full force and effect.

The provisions of this Policy are not meant to be exhaustive. Generally, any conduct that violates law, regulation, or the accepted norms and ethics of the Internet community or the community at large, whether or not expressly mentioned in this Policy, is prohibited.

Internet Provisions

Viasat does not endorse or in any way vouch for any content on or made available through the Service. Any content on or made available through the Service does not constitute or reflect the views or approval of Viasat or any of its directors, officers, employees, subsidiaries or affiliates.

You acknowledge that content on or made available through the Service might consist of, include and/or provide access to images, sound, messages, text, services or other content and material that may be unsuitable for minors and that may be objectionable to many adults. You acknowledge that Viasat is not responsible for any such content or material and agree that access to same through use of the Service is at your sole risk. The reliability, availability, legality, performance and other aspects of resources accessed through the Service are beyond Viasat's reasonable control. You acknowledge that safeguards relative to copyright, ownership, appropriateness, reliability, legality and integrity of content may be entirely lacking with respect to the Internet and content accessible through it.

You agree that your use of the Service is at your sole risk. Service is provided using a public internet connection and you should take all precautions for the security of your device and information. Because of the number of possible sources of information available through the Service, and the uncertainties of electronic distribution and WI-FI technology, there may be interruptions, delays, omissions, inaccuracies, or other problems with such information or the Service. If you rely on the Service or any material available through the Service, you do so at your own risk. To the maximum extent allowed by the applicable law, you understand that you are solely responsible for any damage caused by your use of the Service, including without limitation, damage to your computer system, loss of data, or other harm that results from any material and/or data downloaded from, transmitted by, or otherwise provided through or in connection with use of the Service.
